Constitutional Law Scholar and Commerce Clause Expert (1)	Randy Barnett (Georgetown University Constitutional Law and Commerce Clause Expert)	Welsh & Recker, Pc Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP	Catherine M. Recker Amy B. Carver Thomas V. Loran III Nida Vidutis	Section 856(a)(2) is facially unconstitutional: it regulates activity performed "without compensation," exceeding Congress's enumerated and delegated powers under the Commerce and Necessary and Proper Clauses.
Multi-cities (5)	King County, WA New York, NY San Francisco, CA Seattle, WA Pittsburgh, PA	Hogan Lovells US LLP	Joseph T. Spoerl Virginia A. Gibson Stephen A. Loney, Jr. Alexander B. Bowerman	Amici recognize that overdose-prevention sites are an evidence-based medical intervention that can be a critical tool in combatting opioid addiction. The DOJ presses an interpretation of the Controlled Substances Act that goes beyond any past application of the statute and is fundamentally incompatible with the text, design, and purpose of the statute, and the judgment of public health authorities everywhere.
